

Proclamation

Presented to
Sage-Lynae Symonette
Congress of Future Medical Leaders

- WHEREAS, Sage-Lynae Symonette is a 9th grader at Fort Lauderdale High School; and
- WHEREAS, Sage-Lynae is a delegate to the Congress of Future Medical Leaders taking place on June 25-27, 2016 in Lowell, MA; and
- WHEREAS, the Congress of Future Medical Leaders was created by the National Academy of Future Physicians and Medical Scientists who found it unacceptable that many of America's highest potential students never fulfill their dream of entering the medical profession because they lack resources, direction, self-confidence or guidance; and
- WHEREAS, Sage-Lynae was nominated by Dr. Robert Darling, the medical director of the Academy to represent Florida based on her academic achievements, leadership potential, and determination to serve humanity in the field of medicine; and
- WHEREAS, the Congress is an honors only program for the highest achieving high school students and invitation is by academic nomination only. The purpose of the weekend event is to honor, inspire and motivate those who want to become physicians or go into medical research fields; and
- WHEREAS, the Mayor and City Commissioners are proud and honored to issue this proclamation to Sage-Lynae Symonette, and do congratulate her on her outstanding academic achievements, and do wish her well in her future studies in the medical field.

NOW, THEREFORE, WE, as City Commissioners of the City of Fort Lauderdale, Florida, do hereby proclaim, June 21, 2016 as:

Sage-Lynae Symonette Day

in the city of Fort Lauderdale.

DATED this, the 21st day of June 2016.

Mayor John P. "Jack" Seiler
