

*Office of the Mayor
City of Fort Lauderdale*

Proclamation

In Recognition of Sherry Schlueter
South Florida Wildlife Center
June 2, 2016

WHEREAS, Sherry Schlueter, executive director for the South Florida Wildlife Center (SFWC) and wildlife advocate, will be honored at her Farewell Appreciation Reception on Thursday, June 2, 2016: and

WHEREAS, Ms. Schlueter has been invited to be part of a new The Humane Society of the United States initiative to provide enhanced training and instruction for law enforcement professionals across the country on conducting animal cruelty investigations for achieving successful outcome. With Ms. Schlueter's extensive prior law enforcement experience, unparalleled in the field of animal cruelty investigation, her work in this area will be invaluable: and

WHEREAS, Ms. Schlueter will also continue to work on several special ongoing SFWC projects she helped to initiate, seeing those through to successful completion: and

WHEREAS, Government officials and HSUS leadership, as well as supporters and staff of SFWC will be on hand to honor Ms. Schlueter's accomplishments on behalf of wildlife rescued, rehabilitated and released in Broward, Palm Beach and Dade Counties. During Ms. Schlueter's leadership, SFWC has admitted approximately 84,000 injured, orphaned or imperiled animals, with the goal of returning every rehabilitated native animal back to nature to live wild and free.

NOW, THEREFORE WE, as City Commissioners of the City of Fort Lauderdale, Florida, do hereby proclaim, Thursday, June 2, 2016 as:

SHERRY SCHLUETER DAY

in the city of Fort Lauderdale, and do congratulate her on her new position with the Humane Society of the United States.

DATED this, the 2nd day of June 2016.

Mayor John P. "Jack" Seiler
